What Has Happened to the Fart Monster?

Paco Cholbi • Illus. Carles Arbat

The Fart Monster is back, ready for new adventures!

But one morning, his famous PPPRRRUUUFFFF is gone... and he disappears.

Without him, the children are sad, the parents are confused, and the whole town is in chaos.

Rumour says he hasn't just lost his farts, he's lost his confidence.

But with the help of three monster friends, and in the most unexpected place, he may discover what truly makes him special.

- A funny, feel-good story that reminds us that even heroes need a break... before coming back louder than ever!
- A hilarious, heartwarming sequel about burnout, friendship and finding your spark again.
- A story that combines humour with emotional intelligence and selfcare.

Camping Help!

Summer holidays, nature and friends... what could possibly go wrong?

Well, absolutely everything if you're Lucas Kent and you hate summer camps. What starts as a simple end-of-school trip quickly becomes a chaotic, laughoutloud adventure: a spooky forest, a storm gone wild, a secret underground tunnel and a group of kids who must work together if they want to escape the mess they created.

With her warm and humorous style, Rocio Bonilla brings to life a bold, fastmoving story where friendship, teamwork and a touch of chaos make every page exciting.

- A perfect blend of humour + mystery, with clever nods to The Goonies and Star Wars.
- Friendship-driven adventure: a feel-good story about courage, teamwork and sticking together when things get tricky.

Ariadna and the Circle of Audacity

Silvestre Vilaplana

A bold, mythpowered adventure series where a fearless group of friends faces gods, monsters and impossible choices across three unforgettable worlds.

The Sword of Thanatos

Ariadna's life changes forever when she discovers she is a descendant of Athena and is chosen to join the Circle of Courage— a team of young heroes and mythical beings. Their mission: stop the awakening of three ancient artifacts that could bring the end of humanity. From Roman ruins to the depths of the Titanic, Ariadna faces monsters, riddles, and a choice that could save or doom humanity.

Six heroes. Three artifacts. One chance to save the world.

- A thrilling adventure that blends Greek mythology with modern action and humour.
- A strong, relatable heroine who discovers her true power and identity.

The Kingdom of the Dead

This second book picks up where The Sword of Thanatos ended: the same friends, the same global threat, but now in the Underworld.

When harpies drag Giorgios below, Ariadna and the Circle of Audacity must enter Hades, outsmart gods and monsters, and rescue their mentor before a ruthless businessman claims a relic that could end humanity.

Through dangerous crossings, impossible deals and shattering truths, Ariadna learns that courage isn't being fearless, it's moving forward when the world shakes.

A fast-paced, funny and heartfelt fantasy that blends Greek myths with modern chaos, friendship and a heroine finding her voice.

- Sometimes bravery is not entering the Underworld... but daring to leave it.
- A strong, relatable heroine whose emotional journey deepens the stakes and anchors the entire saga. Perfect for readers who love myth, action and characterdriven storytelling.

False Originals

When a prestigious art show comes to town, Linus Filstrup can't shake the feeling that the "rediscovered masterpieces" aren't real. With Arlo's chaospowered intuition and a collector who smiles a little too confidently, the brothers uncover a trail of forged art, secret deals and a mystery begging for a true Filstrup investigation.

A funny adventure with museum alarms, quick disguises, a super-fast art forger and a young painter whose talent changes everything. Linus learns that being a Filstrup isn't about stealing, but about choosing why and for whom.

A funny, fastmoving adventure about art, justice and a family whose moral code is as unconventional as it is unbreakable.

- A high-energy art-world heist with humour, heart and irresistible "fake originals".
- Irresistible cast: Linus, Arlo, Grandpa directing operations from a hospital bed, Dr. Agua the "general specialist", Amata the genius forger and Mariwaves, the teen painter who accidentally cracks the case.
