CHOOSE YOUR OWN ADVENTURE

Kronos Agency sends explorers through time to solve mysteries of the history. Each book turns readers into secret agents and encourages them to decide on the development of the adventure, taking different narrative paths according to the page they decide to go to.

With this series we have reinvented the classic book games in which the reader becomes the hero. Time travels, mysteries to solve, enemies chasing you... You are the protagonist!

Re-read the book as many times as necessary until you can unravel the mystery. But watch out! One wrong decision and you could disappear in time. Kronos Agency is in your hands.

Do you dare to play? Accept the mission and become a real agent.
